

The Fox

SLOW SOLO

The [D] Fox went out on a chilly night
He [D] prayed for the moon to [A] give him light
For he had [D] many a mile to [G] go that night
Be-[D]fore he [A] reached the [D] town-o [A] town-o [D] town-o
[G] He had many a mile to [D] go that night
Be-[A]fore he reached the [D] town-o COUNT 1234 TO BRING UP TO SPEED

He [D] ran till he came to the farmer's pen
The [D] ducks and the geese were [A] kept therein
He said a [D] couple of you are gonna [G] grease my chin
Be-[D]fore I [A] leave this [D] town-o [A] town-o [D] town-o
D [G] couple of you are gonna [D] grease my chin
Be-[A]fore I leave this [D] town-o 1234

He [D] grabbed the great goose by the neck
He [D] threw a duck a-[A]cross his back
And [D] he didn't mind the [G] quack, quack, quack
And the [D] legs all [A] danglin' [D] down-o [A] down-o [D] down-o
[G] He didn't mind the [D] quack, quack, quack
And the [A] legs all danglin' [D] down-o 1234

Well the [D] old gray Woman jumped out of bed
[D] Out of the window she [A] popped her head
Cryin' [D] John, John the great [G] goose is gone
The [D] Fox is [A] on the [D] town-o [A] town-o [D] town-o
[G] John, John the great [D] goose is gone
And the [A] Fox is on the [D] town-o 1234

He [D] ran till he came to his nice warm den
And [D] there were the little ones [A] 8, 9, 10
Sayin' [D] Daddy, Daddy better [G] go back again
It [D] must be a [A] mighty fine [D] town-o [A] town-o [D] town-o
[G] Daddy, Daddy [D] go back again
For it [A] must be a mighty fine [D] town-o 1234

The [D] Fox and his Wife, without any strife
They [D] cut up the goose with a [A] fork and a knife
And [D] they never had such a [G] supper in their life
And the [D] little ones [A] chewed on the [D] bones-o
[A] Bones-o [D] bones-(SLOWING) ooooh
